

“Studying Brave Hearts in our Academy is provoking discussion and enlightening our recruits.”

– Charles Ramsey, Commissioner, Philadelphia P.D.
President, Police Executive Research Forum (PERF)

“It’s one thing for an instructor to talk about law enforcement work. It’s another to read about the real life experiences of cops in the field. That’s why Brave Hearts is so valuable.”

– Jim Duffy, Temple University

“Brave Hearts is educational and motivating. Recruits who study the book in our 15-week residential program come away realizing they have a profession, not just a job.”

– Rusty Goodpaster, Indiana Law Enforcement Academy
