

“This book inspires in ways few others can.”

“After reading Brave Hearts: Extraordinary Stories of Pride, Pain and Courage, I decided to assign the book as required reading for the new recruits at the New Haven Police Dept. Academy. I believe this powerful book will inspire our new recruits in ways few other writings can. Brave Hearts inspired me and I believe it will inspire others.”

– Dean Esserman, Chief of Police, New Haven, Conn. Police Dept.
